HORSES OUT FOR EXERCISE

Need of Alexander Island Officials to Protect the Betting Public.

THE KEIME INQUIRY ENDED

Judge Oyster Buled Off Mr. Llyd, Manager of the River View Stable, Because of the Latter's Connection With the In and Out Running of the Horse Keime.

Just as long as horses are put in races for work just so long will there be startling reversals of form, and the betting public will be kept guessing all the time whether a horse is out to win or only for exercise. Yesterday two or three of the starters at the Island tract did not show consistent form, and their running was open to criticism. Judge Oyster has concluded the investigation regarding the running of Keime, and as a result ruled off Manager Lloyd, of the River View stable. According to the judge Mr. Lloyd admitted having gotten certain people from Philadel-phia and this city to play Detroit the day Keime lost at 3 to 5, and Detroit won. Jockey Harry Lewis, who was ruled off for the same offense, has left for other parts.

Now that the officials have shown a deter mination to punish fraud they should keep up the good work, and protect the public and also the bookmakers from designing owners and jockeys.

Yesterday Jockey Moore had the mount on Successor in the first race, and he showed deelded disinclination to get off well, and in fact made a remark at the post that he was out for a pleasure ride. This may explain Successor's a pleasure ride. This may explain Successor's poor showing in the race.

Another case was that of Mollie Davis, in the same race. On form she should have been in the first three, but after leading to the stretch, finished in the ruck. No excuse of the saddle girth slipping was made, although it was reported Fitzsimmons, who role the mare, owns an interest in Jim Orem, who finished second. Bender did not ride Beautiful Belis to the satisfaction of those who bet on the mare.

ful Bells to the satisfaction of those who bet on the mare.

Hem-t was made an even money shot for the opening race and won easily after swerving a good deal in the stretch. The second was merely a gallop for Mabel A., the favorite, while McKeever won the third in handy fashion. Traitor bagged the fourth and Speedwell galloped home in front in the fifth. Summaries.

Old Blackburn got away from the post, but the evinced no desire to run, and was beaten Jockey Moore did not ride Successor with any vim, and, in fact, said at the post he was taking a pleasant gallop.

Bender resumed work in the saddle, but it would have been better for his followers if he had staid on the ground. The showing made by Mollie Davis was not up to her form, and Fitzaimmone, who had the mount, should have been investigated.
